

Dear ISE Member Societies and Regional Affiliates,

We are excited to start the year from our new central headquarters in snowy Switzerland and would like to extend our very best wishes for 2017 to all our members, affiliates and partners around the world! We are looking forward to connecting with many of you at the various gatherings of our community over coming year.

You are receiving this email as either a President, Secretary or Regional Affiliate office of the ISE, if you no longer hold this role, please update us via members@isendo.org

WHO'S WHO IN THE ISE OFFICE...

WE WANT TO HEAR YOUR VIEWS...

Over the coming months we will distribute a two part membership survey to all the Presidents and Secretaries of ISE Member Societies and Regional Affiliates. The surveys will help us to identify key areas member societies feel we should focus on in the future. In the spring, we will also be conducting a wider survey aimed at all our member societies individual members (of which there are over 50,000!). The results of the surveys will help us further understand the needs and priorities of the global endocrine community and will be analyzed as part of our 2017 strategy review in June.

Please participate if you can, as leaders in the field, your views are very important to us!

WORLD HEALTH DAYS

WORLD CANCER DAY 4TH FEBRUARY 2017

A global event held annually, World Cancer Day (WCD) unites the world's population in the fight against cancer. Taking place under the tagline 'We can. I can.', WCD 2016-2018 will explore how everyone, as a scientist, society or member of the public - can do their part to reduce the global burden of cancer.

What are you or your society doing to help raise awareness?

Are you planning an event?

Will you be releasing a new relevant publication?

Align your plans with World Cancer Day to simultaneously have a larger impact and contribute to the overall success of the Day.

Add your activity to the WCD map.

Do you or your society use social media? Show your support in the fight against cancer by using your own network and increase the global impact of the Day. Spread the word using the #WorldCancerDay and access campaign materials here.
