Endocrinology Sessions (Casual Basis) Western Health, Melbourne

Expressions of interest are sought from endocrinologists who are available to work on a casual basis in the busy Obstetric Endocrinology Clinics at Sunshine Hospital, Melbourne. Sunshine Hospital has one of the highest rates of gestational diabetes in the country (currently 19%) and runs an Obstetric Endocrinology Clinic every weekday (10 endocrinology sessions a week). An "Endobank" (panel of Western Health appointed endocrinologists) will be set up soon to provide annual leave and conference leave cover for permanent staff. It is anticipated there will be more than 50 sessions a year requiring casual leave replacement. Casual rates (125% usual hourly pay rate) will apply, as these positions are casual and do not attract leave entitlements. Sessions will be available Monday-Friday.

To register your interest, please forward your curriculum vitae to A/Prof Shane Hamblin, Head Endocrinology & Diabetes Peter.Hamblin@wh.org.au

ESA Subscriptions

Membership to the ESA permits access to all meetings, obtaining membership registration, opportunity to apply for the various ESA awards/Travel Grants, ESA newsletter, e-bulletins and patient information. ESA membership also enables inclusion in the ESA "find an endocrinologist" which is a popular portal within the site.

If your dues are not paid you will not be eligible to apply for membership registration fees and awards for the forthcoming ESA meetings.

New ESA initiative! "Find a researcher"

ESA Council would like to provide a facility for members to explore research interests represented within the Society, identify researchers who are willing to review manuscripts or grants, and those willing to receive invitations to speak at local or national meetings. The primary aim is to encourage research interactions and collaborations, the secondary aims are to raise the profile of emerging and early career researchers and establish the Society's membership as a valuable national resource for peer review activities related to research.

Council encourages ESA members to "opt in" by providing details of their qualifications, training, current position, research interests and "top 5" recent publications to a member-access database. The database will provide a means for researchers to identify potential collaborators, and promote interactions between clinical and laboratory-based researchers within the Society. These data will be accessible only to other members of ESA.

If you would like to be listed in 'Find a Researcher' Log in at the ESA homepage: <http://www.endocrinesociety.org.au/> Go to resources.

Find an Endocrinologist

The Endocrine Society of Australia receives regular enquiries to recommend an endocrinologist with particular interests or expertise. Endocrinology is a broad field, which includes some very common conditions, but also some very rare ones. As a result, people who have rare conditions may benefit from seeing a specialist with additional experience or expertise. The Society comprises clinical endocrinologists and also scientists, who research endocrine disorders but do not see patients. Clinical members of the Society have been invited to submit their contact details and self-nominated areas of interest. Please note that the Endocrine Society of Australia is providing this as a community service to help patients find a suitable endocrinologist (considering both geographical issues and area of interest). The Society is not endorsing or recommending any of the listed clinicians or their degree of expertise.

The general public will be able to search for an Endocrinologist in this section: <http://www.endocrinesociety.org.au/search-for-an-endocrinologist.asp>

PATIENT RESOURCES IN ENDOCRINOLOGY- a partnership between ESA and the US Endocrine Society

Hormone Health
NETWORK®
FROM THE ENDOCRINE SOCIETY

<http://www.endocrinesociety.org.au/patient-resources/index.asp>

The Endocrine Society of Australia have established an international collaboration with the US Endocrine Society to adapt patient information to the Australian setting and make them readily available.

These resources are rigorously developed, evidence based and aimed to support patients to understand their endocrine condition with the support of their doctor.

The Organising Committee welcomes all students and interested scientists to the 2015 ESA Basic Career Development Weekend.

Website: <http://esamentorworkshop.org/>

When: 21-22nd August (immediately preceding the Annual Scientific Meeting).

Where: Stamford Grand, Glenelg, Adelaide.

Focus: The weekend is focussed on mentorship and career development. There will be a number of leading Australian researchers who will provide insight into career development.

International Plenary: We welcome Professor William Rainey (University of Michigan), who will provide personal insight into the development of an internationally renowned career.

Included Topics:

- Fellowship funding: how to stay one step ahead.
- Alternative sources of funding: looking beyond NHMRC
- How do basic scientists develop translational strengths?

We look forward to seeing you in Adelaide.

Dr Belinda Henry, Chair, Organising committee

The Organising Committee welcomes all trainees, endocrinologists, and interested clinicians to the 2015 ESA Clinical Weekend in the beachside town of Glenelg, Adelaide. Our two overriding themes will be Reproductive Endocrinology and Thyroid Cancer. We look forward to stimulating case discussions based on presentations by our advanced trainees supported by plenaries by our international guests, Professor Richard Santen and Professor Michael Tuttle, both renowned speakers and clinicians in the fields of breast cancer and advanced thyroid cancer respectively.

Registration and case study submissions open 10th February 2015
